

FLD
98

CLASSIFICATION: CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY

SECURITY INFORMATION

COUNTRY: East Germany

REPORT NO. [redacted]

SOVIET DEPOT IN FUERSTENWALDE

25X1

25X1

25X4

EVALUATION: [redacted]

PLACE OBTAINED: [redacted]

DATE OF CONTENT: [redacted]

DATE OBTAINED: [redacted]

REARED: 26 October 1958

REFERENCES: 25X1

PAGE: 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. &amp; TYPE): [redacted]

REMARKS: [redacted]

25X1

1. A Soviet branch depot of the central depot in Eberswalde, which is subordinate to Brandenburg, was located on Dr. Wilhelm Kuehl Strasse in Fuerstenwalde. The depot was said to have had the cover name Lozhina. A second depot in Frankfurt/Oder belonged to the Fuerstenwalde depot.
2. The following installations were supplied by the Fuerstenwalde depot with goods including radio sets and uniforms: three barracks installations in Frankfurt/Oder, one barracks installation in Beeskow, all barracks installations in Fuerstenwalde, the air force recreation center in Bad Saarow, the barracks installation in Wilmersdorf and the barracks installation in Berkenbrueck.
3. From 22 April to 17 June, the depot was transferred to Lieberose from where it returned to Fuerstenwalde after 17 June.
4. Depot commandant was Senior Lieutenant Kotov (fmu) who was in charge of the procurement section. One Senior Lieutenant Stoyanenkov (fmu) also belonged to the installations.
5. Units and depots supplied by the central depot in Eberswalde include the depot at Fuerstenwalde, Commissary Major Nikoleyev, Eberswalde, Prenzlau, Grabowsee, Hennigsdorf, Lieberose and Bernau.
6. The central depot at Eberswalde received the goods from main depots in Berlin, Leipzig, Chemnitz, and Teltow.

25X1

1. Comment. Lozhina may be the name of the depot commandant. The name was reported from Fuerstenwalde for the first time.

25X1

2. Comment. Com [redacted] a [redacted] Kotov (fmu) and Stoyanenkov (fmu) are known.

25X1

3. Comment. These supply installations and receiving depots are known. Major Nikoleyev (fmu) has previously been reported from Eberswalde.

CLASSIFICATION: CONFIDENTIAL/CONTROL - U.S. OFFICIALS ONLY